

Hop tu Naa survey 2024

Gura mie eu! Thank you for taking part in this survey of how people celebrate 31 October in the Isle of Man. In doing this, you are making a significant contribution to the recording of Manx culture.

After completing this survey. Please return it (or a digital photograph or copy thereof) to:

FAO James Franklin, Culture Vannin, Fairfield House, Main Road, St John's IM4 3NA
resources@culturevannin.im

Where do you live? ( can be vague ) _____ _____
How many groups of people visited? How many people visited? ( can be rough ) _____ _____
How many of the groups sang songs? _____
For those that sang, what was the song? ( more info: https://culturevannin.im/hoptunaa ) _____ _____ _____
How many groups had carved turnips with them? Which way up were they? _____
What did you give out to the visitors? _____ _____
Other comments: _____ _____ _____ _____

Your personal data: Culture Vannin works within the guidelines of the General Data Protection Regulation [GDPR], which came into effect on 25 May 2018, and its implementing legislation, the Data Protection Act 2018). Information about how Culture Vannin will use your personal data you can review our Privacy Policy at <https://culturevannin.im/aboutus/policies/>.

What we will do with your personal data: The data contained within this form will be held securely and not shared with anyone, unless Culture Vannin is obligated to do so for legal purposes, such as evidencing ownership or demonstrating a valid Agreement. The information contained within the survey itself will be made available (subject to your agreement) through the Culture Vannin website and other selected organisations relevant to the mission of Culture Vannin, as well as through the Manx Museum. We will keep this data in perpetuity, but you can request partial or complete closure of your interview to public access using 'Other comments' section of this form. You can request a copy of the personal data we hold about you at any time.