

A selection of resources on the History of Education in the Isle of Man

- Bird, H. (1995) An Island that Led – the History of Manx Education, Vol 1 and 2, Manx Heritage Foundation
- Clamp, P.J. (1988) The Struggle for the Common School System in the Isle of Man: 'A Compulsory Education Bill for Mona', History of Education Society Bulletin, 42, 18-29
- Ely, R (2003) Manx Schools: past, present and proposed, Published by Ronald S. Ely
- Forster, R.E.C. (1990) 'The Pioneering Schools of Peel', The Proceedings of the Isle of Man Natural History and Antiquarian Society, vol IX, no 3, 269-292 (Manx National Heritage Library)
- Harrison, A. (1978) The Mathematical School of Peel, Journal of the Manx Museum, vii, no 88 pp 216-216 (Manx National Heritage Library)
- Hoy, M. (2010) Isaac Barrow: his life and legacy, Culture Vannin
- Little, A.W. (2019) 'Education for All and for the Few', Chapter 5 in Rushen Heritage Trust, Living with the Sea: the fascinating story of Port St Mary and its people, Douglas: Lily Publications
<https://angelawlittle.net/wp-content/uploads/2020/10/LivingWithTheSeaPages-110919-education-chapter-Final.pdf>
- Manx Notebook <http://isle-of-man.com/manxnotebook//catalog/d426.htm>
- Moore, R. B. (1926) History of Education in the Isle of Man
<http://isle-of-man.com/manxnotebook//fulltext/ew1926/hist.htm>
- School Log Books – some available in current schools and in Manx National Heritage Library
- School Committee Minute books – some available in Manx National Heritage Library